MINISTRY OF IRON AND STEEL

Iron & Steel Control

Calcutta-1, the 20th August 1966

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUB Import of Iron & Steel materials from USA under US AID Non-Project Loan 1966—Loan No. 386 H-155

No. I&F IV 105 66(PN)—Attention of importers concerned is invited to Iron & Steel Controller Public Notice Nos. 1/6-19/66(PN), dated 16-5-66 and 16-6-66 setting out terms and conditions governing import from USA under the US Aid Non-Project Loan 1966, named as 386-H-155

Under the Regulations of US AID the minimum size of transaction eligible for AID financing is $ 1000. Hence no order can be placed on US Supplier against an import licence issued under US AID Non-Project Loan 1966 (386 H-155), if the order involves payment to U.S. supplier in dollar of a sum less than one thousand dollars. Also in Letter of Credit for less than $ 1000 can be opened. Accordingly, the following amendments to the Public Notice Nos. 1/6-19/66 (PN), dt. 16-5-66 and 16-6-66, mentioned above are notified:—

I. In Para 2(a) after the existing provisions, add the following sentence:—

'Letter of Credit for less than $ 1000 will not be opened'

II. In clause (v) "Price of commodity and their use" between the two paragraphs insert the following as a new paragraph:—

'No orders should be placed on a U.S. Supplier if it involves payment to him in dollars of a sum less than one thousand dollars. This stipulation will also apply in respect of each order where ordering on more than one U.S. Supplier is involved. The total value of all such orders should not, however, exceed the value of the licence'

III. In clause (VI) 'Time limit for placing of orders'

(a) Delete the existing provisions in the opening sentence as "Orders must be placed for the full value of the licence within the following limits" and substitute the following revised provisions:—

Subject to the stipulation in the Note under this clause orders must be placed for the full value of the licence within the following time limits:

(b) At the end add the following as footnote:—

Note: No order should be placed on a U.S. Supplier if it involves payment to him in dollars of a sum less than one thousand dollars. This stipulation will also apply in respect of each order where ordering on more than one U.S. supplier is involved. The total value of all such orders should not, however, exceed the value of the licence.

IV. In clause (IX) "Payments against import licences—Letter of Commitment Procedure"—In the first paragraph add the following penultimate sentence :—

"Letter of Credit for less than $ 1000 should not be opened".

V. In clause (XII) "Actual User Licences" at the end add the following as food note :—

*NOTE : In placing orders under the facility allowed in this clause, the condition that no order can be placed on a U.S. supplier if it involves payment to him in dollars of a sum less than one thousand dollars should be kept in view".

VI. Delete the last sentence of Clause II-B—"Other Procurement requirement" and substitute the following sentence in lieu of :—

"In case where the order was placed or the award made to other than the lowest offer or bidder, the importer will give the reasons for rejecting the lower offers or bids and for accepting the successful bidder".
